Show Updates

The Fantasticks: Kudos on a sold out run!

Picasso: With Don's stepping down from the board and from producing, the show is in need of a producer. REGINA offered to ask Susan Voorhees to produce. They are also looking for a set decorator and someone to be in charge of hair/wigs. KARA will contact Chris Ashcraft and Tom Cervenka about including a disclaimer about language/topics on the CPAC ticketing page.

I'm Herbert: Regina is working around accommodations for her cast. She was pleased with the audition turnout.

Summer workshops: We scheduled the February show selection workshop and invited directors.

New Business:

We are considering hiring a “season producer” who will oversee production of the '26-'27 season. The 4 officers (MARCY, REGINA, RAY, and KARA) will come up with a job description to look for candidates.

KARA will include a call for new board members in the March newsletter.

Fiesta Sahuarita will be held April 18th. MARCY moved to participate this year. KARA seconded. APPROVED.

MARCY moved to buy an ad in the next CPAC program guide. MIKE seconded. APPROVED.

Subcommittee Updates:

- Play Reading

We had previously discussed moving forward with 3 proposed shows for the '26-'27 season

Fall '26: George Washington's Teeth, directed by Susan Voorhees

Winter '27: And Then There Were None, directed by Regina Ford

Spring '27: The Nerd, directed by Chad Eggen

ANNE moved to accept this proposal. JANET seconded. APPROVED.

Rae Williams submitted 2 shows for Summer '27. After reading and discussing, we decided to move forward with The Curate Shakespeare As You Like It by Don Nigro.

CHAD proposed that we add it as the summer show for 2027. ANNE seconded. APPROVED.

JANET moved to adjourn. CHAD seconded. APPROVED.

Meeting adjourned: 8:06pm
